THE SHOFAR

The Torah calls Rosh Hashanah the “day of the shofar blast.” The central mitzvah of Rosh Hashanah (the Jewish New Year) is to hear the shofar being blown—ideally as part of the prayer service in the synagogue. There are many explanations as to why we blow the shofar on Rosh Hashanah. Perhaps the most important of them is that we use it as a trumpet to crown G-d as the King over the entire universe.
